Donna C. Hom

JAN 31, 1936 - JAN 21, 2021

Donna Cheung Hom, age 83, of Fairview Park, OH, passed away unexpectedly on January 21, 2021. Born in Guangzhou, China, she married Willie L. Hom and moved to Ohio in 1960. Willie passed away in 1991. She remarried and is survived by her husband, Danny Auyeung. Willie and Donna had four children: Harold (Anieda), Edward (Karen), Stephen (Jessica) and Randy (Angie). She was the loving grandmother to Lisa, Catherine, Brian, Grant, Matthew, Andrew, Jonathan, Brandon, Tiffany and Cameron. She was preceded in death by her parents Yau Pak Cheung and Mei Oi Cheung, her brother Wai Cheung, and her sisters Ruihe Zhang and Eliza Woo. She is survived by her brother Ted Cheung, several sisters-in-law and many nieces and nephews.

Donna was a gracious host and ambitious businesswoman. She opened three Chinese restaurants: King Wah in Rocky River, Ho Wah in Beachwood and Li Wah in Cleveland. She enjoyed serving her customers and treated everyone like family. She took great pride in developing the Asia Plaza mini-mall in Cleveland.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the non-profit Asian Services in Action, 3631 Perkins Ave, Cleveland, Ohio 44114, which provides social and health services to the Asiatown community in which Donna was a strong advocate.
