I first met Linda at Cleveland's Longmead Elementary School. We both were Girl Scout Brownies and my mother was the Brownie leader. Years later my parents moved from Cleveland to Olmsted Falls and were surprised to discover that Linda was their next door neighbor. A close friendship was formed and lasted many years. I moved to Australia in 1970 and my parents followed in 1983. The friendship with Linda and Marty remained strong despite the great distance. Emails enabled us to keep in touch with Linda and to receive photos of her growing family. My husband Dale and I wish to express our deepest sympathy to Marty and the family for their loss. With Love, Judy and Dale Cowan
