John and I became acquainted at Gwen's birthday party when she and my son, Jordan, were young Avon students. It was the birthday party which included the pony rides! He was proud to show me his Ford truck in the garage, and told me about his future plans of maintenance, and updating the project. I could only encourage him to get it out soon, and drive and enjoy the old Ford truck. Whenever we (Jordan, Jessica, and I ) drive down Case Road, I always think about his family, and the trampoline which the wind blew into the retention pond.
