I was sorry to hear about Tim. I remember him from the time he was dating Kathy to Christmas mornings at the Domens and the times when you girls were young. He was one of the most sincere and happy guys I know. He was always willing to help with whatever was needed. I am sorry I didn't get to meet you Barbara. May your memories of all the good times comfort you.

Dear Barb, Though we are not up there in body we are certainly with you in our hearts. Tim was a funny guy and was the best answering machine anyone could ask for --- he was so witty! I know he loved you and made you happy. People search a lifetime for that and never get a day of it, and your thirteen years of happiness will always be remembered til you meet again. With love, Bev and Arnie

Well Done Good and Faithful Servant. Your work here is done, your mansion awaits you, in a place where there is no pain or sorrow. We will miss your laughter and easy smile. The world seems a little darker now that your bright light has been extinguished. Rest Easy Tim Until we are all together again. Jim, Diane, Shannon, Alex and Daniel
