Mike, Jill, and the rest of the Zeager family, words cannot immediately heal the grief that you feel at the moment. But remember that you and your loved Lon are held up in prayer. May your cherished memories sustain you in this sorrowful time. -Margaret Fedor and Family

Lon was a larger-than-life character. He was an animated man while maintaining a steadfast manner. He had a great, sharp sense of humor, could cause one to cry laughing. His golf swing was as smooth as Sam Sneads. In work, he was an old school, consummate professional. He was a straight shooter. He was a man of integrity. He understood duty, he understood discipline. He brought fun and wealth for those he worked around. Lon is a tremendous loss to the industry he worked to build and serve. My deepest sympathies to his family, friends, and co-workers.
