Dear Barb, Stevie, Scott, and Billy, I am so sad to learn that Steve has passed. I have such fond memories of your family's visits to Wheeling and our visits to Cleveland! I remember playing Mille Bornes and cookouts in the yard. What great times we all had! I hope he and Dad are catching up with each other in heaven tonight! Love you all. ~Jamie

Uncle Steve, I have memories of us when we were kids together living in that two story two family home on w. 50th street in Cleveland back around the 1950s. We used to play in the back yard and sometimes you would take me out to to ball diamond to play baseball with you. I would also help you fold the Cleveland or News Herald. I wish we could have spent more time together. I'm going to miss you very much. I love you and GOD bless you. R.I.P. Your nephew, Albert.
