Walter Carl Rozinger

DEC 16, 1929 - OCT 24, 2021

Walter Carl Rozinger, 91, of Lakewood, Ohio passed away on October 24, 2021. He was born on December 16, 1929 in Lakewood, Ohio to the late George and Hilda (nee Kurzenberger) Rozinger. He proudly served in the United States Army during the Korean War. Walter was a Master Carpenter by trade. After retiring from carpentry, he took his talents to building model kits of ships, airplanes, and HO train model railroads. Every now and then he would enjoy a Miller High Life. Walter will be fondly remembered for his sense of humor and his impression of Donald Duck. He is reunited with his dear wife Doris Rozinger of 65 years; loving father of Diane, Robert, and Richard Rozinger; treasured grandfather of Heather (Nick) Tollis and Jennifer (Evan) Phillips; cherished great-grandfather of Annah Phillips. Walter is preceded in death by his grandson Baby Billy. Friends and family are welcome on Friday, October 29, 2021 from 5:00 PM-8:00 PM at the Sunset Chapel, 6245 Columbia Road North Olmsted, Ohio 44070. Walter will be privately laid to rest. Friends and family are welcome to visit Walter's resting place at Sunset Memorial Park, 6265 Columbia Road North Olmsted, Ohio 44070, Section 42, Lot 467. Online condolences and memories may be left on Walter's memorial page at sunsetfuneralandcemetery.com.

Thanks for being such a great dad! Me, Robert and Richard will miss you so much! Thanks for the great memories- talking like Donald Duck, playing with us with your toy trains, planes and ships, and playing Frankenstein in the dark when we were kids! We love you and will miss you so much! How you loved that beer! Your ever loving daughter, Diane. X XX 000
