My Mother in Law Aloisia. As others knew her, Mom, Grandma, Oma, Tante and Lu Lu. She was the most generous Lady you could ever know. Not only to Family but to everyone She met. She always put the other person first and was ready to help and give of Her time, always with kindness. And who could forget the home made currant wine. She will be missed by so many, but not forgotten.

She was an awesome mother in law. I will forever miss her German potato salad and her plum kuchen. She always made socks for everyone which we all loved. Most every Saturday her and grandpa would come for a visit to either garden or do firewood. But she always made sure she had goodies for my kids.

My beautiful mother, missing you, but also glad you are in a better place. It was a 9 year battle, only a strong person can endure and you did. Thank you for my life.
