When we were little girls and shared a bedroom, I will always remember asking the "good fairy" if she could get me a drink of water, after we had been tucked in bed. Without fail, the "good fairy" would show up with the water in hand. Then we would play "toss the teddy bear." Arlyse had a good arm even then. She excelled in athletics. She had many other talents as already stated. I am glad to have such fond memories of my sister! Marlene Erickson

I met Arlyse when she was in the hospital. We visited each other's homes, went to see a musical at Playhouse Square. She had a great sense of humor, and loved to go walking in Geauga Natural Parks. I miss her so much.
