Devoted husband to his late wife Carol. So many shared happy memories. Enjoyed visiting their home and being with Tom and Carol. They are both so missed. My blessings to the family.

Dear Diane, Brett, Cleo and families, I am so sorry that we all lost such a great man. Uncle Tom (to me) always had a smile that could melt your heart. I always enjoyed his stories from his travels, his love of life and his infectious laugh! Visits to your house growing up were always a treat with your mom's homemade lemon bars in the kitchen, movies in the basement and adventures in the back yard. Cleo, you brought that spark back in my uncle's smile, I am so happy you found each other and so sorry for your loss. I'm thinking of you all and keeping you close to my heart. Lisa McInerney-Amiri

Tom, the best neighbor you could hope for. It was always a comfort to know that Tom and Carol were close by during our early years of life in Strongsville after immigrating to the USA from England. We miss you both. Mike & Verna Carter.
