I knew Janet for more than 60 years. I grew up with her on West 231st. She was always a kind young girl and she continued to be kind her entire life. Her positive attitude about life was wonderful. I, along with some other 231st girls (Phyllis, Janet, Georgiann, Marylou and Deb) were fortunate enough to Zoom once a week for the last two years. We shared memories and lots of laughs. My condolences to Janet's family and all her friends.
