Linda was my cousin, her mother was my mother's sister. They were very close as were Linda and I. She was my older cousin and I looked up to her growing up. She had such strength of character much like her mother. Our lives veered in different directions early on but I loved her always. I know she is without pain and in a beautiful place but the world is poorer for her loss. God Bless you Linda Birr. Thank you for being my cousin and friend. Barbara Weitzel Susin
