I am so sorry to hear about Joe's passing. We grew up together on kinsman with my family and the Samide family. I remember all the good times and I know that someday we will meet again.

My uncle Joe (Pepe) was like a second father to me. He gave me my first motorcycle ride on his Triumph Bonneville when I was just a kid. Due to that thrill, I've owned a motorcycle for 50 years. He took me on my first boat ride to fish, but I got sea sick and never went on a boat again without taking Dramamine. We went slot car racing and he coached me to win my first race. He was great at billiards and taught me how to play pool. He loved taking pictures on his vacations, which got me hooked on photography, too. Even though he was the youngest sibling, he was like a big brother to his three sisters Emma, Hilde and Trudi. We are sorry for your loss. He will be deeply missed by everyone who knew him. You were blessed to have him as a husband, father, grandfather and brother. Jerry and Eileen Eppich

Uncle Joe was an exemplary and integral member of the family. He will truly be missed. He kept the German family heritage alive by organizing several trips to Europe with his sisters Emma, Hilda and Trudi. I recently shared a video of one such trip with my mom, Emma, bringing back fond memories for her. Thank you Uncle Joe! I know you will continue to watch over your sisters. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Rick Eppich and John Finger
