Alan was my neighbor and friend for the past 13 years. He loved his bikes, his guns, his country and his boys. I'll miss our fence line (or lack of a fence line) talks. We seemed to disagree on almost everything which made our friendship and conversations that much more special. You are already missed, Alan.

Rest easy dad. I know we didn't have the close father daughter relationship due to unfortunate circumstances in the past. I've thought of you every day, and I still do. I miss you more than I can explain. Until we meet again..
