Bonnie Jean Ringgenberg

AUG 6, 1944 - JAN 3, 2023

Bonnie Jean Ringgenberg, age 78, passed away on January 3, 2023. Bonnie was born on August 6, 1944, in Sligo, Pennsylvania to the late Henry and Catherine White.

Bonnie was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was a friend to all who knew her. Bonnie is survived by her husband, Melvin Neubauer; children, Donna (Steve) Berger, Lisa Ringgenberg, Kelly (Don) Herrmann, Lynn (Tara) Ringgenberg II, Kailene (Andy) Diaz, Jill (George) Colvin, and Suh Neubauer; 18 grandchildren; 4 great-grandchildren; brother, Donald White; and a host of loved nieces, nephews, and other extended family.

Along with her parents, Bonnie is preceded in death by her first husband, Lynn Ringgenberg; brother and sisters, Jimmy White, Donna Marie White, Joann Kline, Louise Cool, Beverly McNamara.

Bonnie enjoyed spending time with her family and was a beautiful storyteller. When Bonnie was around, there were lots of laughs and memories shared. In her earlier years, she was an avid watcher of stock car racing as her late husband, Lynn, raced cars. Bonnie would ride motorcycles with Lynn, seeing all the wonders the states had to offer. She always loved to travel back then and continued to enjoy road-trips with her recent husband, Mel. Her love for God and her country was unmatched.

Bonnie had a strong faith and was an excellent example for her family and those around her. She was a bowler, accordion player, and singer. Bonnie loved to play cards and games, sharing laughs with her family and friends. To say Bonnie loved Longaberger baskets is an understatement. She loved to watch the birds, especially Hummingbirds. Bonnie always had a giving heart. Her spontaneity will always be remembered. Bonnie leaves, to those that knew her, many laughs, and memories. We thank her for the beautiful moments we shared and the love she so freely gave. She is welcomed with open arms into heaven by all those she has loved that have gone
