I'm so sorry for your loss. Pastor Marion was a wonderful preacher. He was kind and compassionate. The love he had for our Lord and His scripture poured out for all to see. I loved listening to his stories of his childhood and falling in love with Carolyn. The fun those brothers had and the love of God so genuine. He made a difference in my life. I praise my Lord that I will see him again some day.

My deepest sympathy, Carolyn to you and your family. I spent so many weekends as a teenager at your home on Morgan Ave. You were my second family. I can still remember when you and Marion started dating. Your sister, "Cookie " my best friend and I were always underfoot. There was always so much love in your home and I always felt so welcome. I know he will truly be missed but he is now at peace. Sending loving prayers to you and your family Pat (Passetti) Strazinsky

My heart is full of sadness at the loss of my dear cousin, Marion. As a child, Marion was known to me as Junior. He was full of life and had the look of mischief in his eye and usually led my other male cousins in harmless pranks and other adventures. Our family gatherings were always accompanied by music with Marion on the accordion, his brother David on the piano. Marion grew into a fine, loving man of God. He never lost his lust for life or that look of mischief in his eye.

My wife and I have known the Marion Wojnarowski family for over 50 years. Our condolences go out to his wife, children and grandchildren. Brother Wojnarowski is now waiting in heaven for all those that have accepting Jesus as their personal Savior. To share a personal note, I was on Parma City Council from 1992 to 2003. Brother Wojnarowski was serving as Parma's senior citizen Chaplin. He ministered to so many of Parma's senior citizens. Many of which were saved and accepted Christ as their Savior. In 2004, Parma had a newly elected Mayor. In a new administration, new people are brought in to work for the city. I knew the Mayor well after serving with him on Parma council. Knowing that Brother Wojnarowski wanted to continue to serve the Lord by ministering to Parma's senior citizens, I called the Mayor and asked him to keep him as Chaplin. The Mayor agreed. Many of Parma's seniors heard the Gospel of Christ and were saved by Brother Marion Wojnarowski's service to the Lord. John Stover
