Joe was my favorite uncle. He always had a smile on his face and a laugh to share. When we were kids, he would always call my brother Larry and me knuckleheads or screwballs. He was the youngest and last of my dad's brothers and sisters. His sweet wife, Aunt Shirley, always made you feel comfortable in her home and made the best West Virginia hot dogs with chili and slaw. The last time I saw Uncle Joe was at my dad's funeral. I always meant to stop by and see him in Cleveland over the last few years, but I didn't. I wish now that I had. My condolences to his two sons Brian and Bradford. I know he love you both very much. Steve Grzyb, Jr.

Dad always loved to spoil our dogs with toys and treats. Because of this, we're asking that in lieu of flowers, that you please make a donation to your local dog shelter.
