Chuck was a special person and he will be greatly missed. He was both funny and thoughtful. I'm grateful that I got to know him while working at the Olmsted Falls Middle School. He was quick to joke and always quick to help out. Chuck was indeed a bright spot to our day.

"Chuckie Cheese", as he was known at Olmsted Falls Middle School, was a fun and funny fellow. Always had a smile and ready to joke with anyone at anytime and an overall great sense of humor. (Like when he and cohort, Larry, decided to "TP" my desk and surrounding area. Thankfully they didn't know where I lived.) I've been retired for 21 years but there's no forgetting Chuckie Cheese - he will be missed. He was a bright spot at the end of our day and the beginning of his.

Chuck will be deeply missed at our monthly get together, our games of LRC, dinners, summer concerts and other fun times. He has left many memories that will be cherished. His kindness and his silliness made him a special person. He is loved and will stay in the hearts of those he touched.

Fern Weaver sent a virtual gift in honor of Charles.

I don't think I ever got to truly meet him, but he seemed like such a sweet soul. I always saw him after school when I was in school theater productions. People tend to not realize the impact of the smallest connections in life, but I know just seeing and smiling at familiar faces like his brightened my day. May he rest in peace. ❤️
