Chris was my neighbor growing up and she was always outside enjoying the sun and flowers and being with her pups. She was very thoughtful for to my parents and I during holidays and remembering our special birthdays. She was always there for my family and myself As I had gotten older she was a great friend personally to me! She will be missed and we have hope in the lord she is with him now and can't wait to see her one day again.

We have been Chris's neighbors for 19 years and she has watched our kids grow up and graduate, the oldest getting married and having a baby. We will miss not seeing Chris in the yard with Lela her dog and tending to all her various potted flowers. We have enjoyed holiday get togethers and exchanging gifts and goodies. We chatted about our faith and feel that we will see Chris again when it is our time to leave this earth. We pray for peace and the presence of our Lord and Savior to be with her family during this difficult time. With Love & Sympathy, Maria & Mike, Kyle, Sarah, Kaylee & Chad and Baby Elaina
