Sandra Marie Tarach

MAR 1, 1955 - SEP 1, 2024

Sandra “Sandie” Marie Tarach lived a life full of love, both giving and receiving. Born March 1, 1955 in Euclid, Ohio to Michael and Alice Krech, she was the baby of their family of five. Her two older brothers, Gary & Dale, were notorious for pulling pranks on her, and everyone always loved hearing the stories of her being rolled up in a carpet by them and having to find her way out.

She married Joe Tarach March 15, 1986 (a day he tells anyone and everyone brought the light into his life) and soon they had the children she always dreamed of: Joseph (Joey), Kristina (Trini), and Alycia (Aly). Sandie would tell anyone who asked (and even those that didn't) all about her children; they were her biggest joy in life and proudest achievement. Her close relationship with each of them is testament to the type of mom she was: loving, supportive, silly, and willing to do anything for her kids.

She was promoted to Grandie on February 12, 2018 with the birth of her first grandchild, Theodore (Teddy), followed by his brother Clark, and their cousin Enzo. If she was proud to be a mom, it was nothing compared to being their Grandie, and she was the absolute best one out there, adored by each of them.

Sandie wasn't just a mom, she was a best friend, a wife, a Guardians baseball lover, the life of the party, the BeeGees' biggest fan, a huge klutz (a trait she passed on big time to her daughter Aly), the strongest person many of us will ever know, and most importantly, the heart and soul of her family.

The hole she left will never be filled, but her memory will be a constant reminder to always blast the music in the car, never stop hoping for a World Series win for the Guards, and to be as silly as you can, whenever you can.

Sandie is survived by her husband Skip, children Joe (Christina) Tarach, Kristina (Damian) Beifus, and Aly Tarach; grandchildren Theodore & Clark Beifus and Enzo Munoz; brothers Dale

I met Sandie 22 years ago, when my son was 4 months old, when we started on the same day at Premier. We became instant friends (and I must say gossipers). She witnessed my kids growing up and me hers go from tweens to adulthood. We shared many, many events in those 22 years, both good and bad. She was the most honest person there was, and I loved her for that. She was also very strong and opinionated, which I also loved about her. Sandie adored her family and was so proud of their achievements. They truly were the light of her life. She will be missed. Love, Christine, Nathaniel and Naomi (and John too lol) Novak

When we moved into this neighborhood in 2022, Sandie was the very first person to welcome us. We will never forget how she immediately came over to ask if we needed anything, making us feel so at ease in our new home. It was such a relief to know we had such kind and welcoming neighbors. Every time I came home from work, if she was sitting on her front porch—her favorite spot—she would always run across the driveway just to say hi. Sandie loved talking about her kids and grandkids, and her stories always made me laugh. We shared some special moments, from exchanging Christmas cookies to handing out Halloween candy together. She was a vibrant and joyful person who will forever hold a special place in our hearts. We will miss her dearly. With love, Your next-door neighbors, Kika, Z and Eddie

My heart goes out to all who loved Sandie. She and I go back to 1961. Sandie was always witty, smart, kind, friendly, and compassionate. She had a welcoming smile for everyone. I don't think she ever met a "stranger" as she made friends so quickly. Teachers loved her for many reasons. Sandie was always helpful to her teachers, raising her hand to answer questions when nobody else did, and helping other students who struggled with a new concept. As we matured through the years, Sandie never lost her kind and youthful spirit. I will miss my sweet friend. May she rest in peace. We will meet up again in heaven.

I grew up across the street from Sandie. All the kids on the street always hung out together, we had a wonderful childhood. I was older than her. Occasionally I would babysit for her when I was a senior in high school. She has been my friend on Facebook since. I have enjoyed watching her posts of her family and want to send you my sincere sympathy for your loss. God bless you all.
