Always ran into Bob over the years on the job. Kind man. Always helpful. Reconnected at the Retiree's luncheon at the CPPA. He has the most amazing memories of the job. Shared all his photos. So helpful with the Women's History Project through the Police Museum. Will miss him at the luncheons. Lots of memories of Bob shared last week. Won't be the same. My thoughts and prayers to his wife and family. Know he was well respected and remembered for his kindness. RIP in the arms of the angels Bob. A salute to you for a life well lived. Sue A. I worked with Bob at the airport, a very easy guy to get along with. after we retired we would see each other from time to time at various retired police functions. He always had great stories to tell about the job and his family. He will be missed by all.

In the short time I knew your family, I can say you were all amazing. Robert was full of life, love and humor. He was immensely proud of all his girls and Ruth. He would remind me every time I came in and you were not there. I pray you guys find comfort in that, your memories and the knowledge of how much he loved you. May peace wrap around you and the support of family and friends lift you up in this difficult time. - Amelia

Whether individually or as a family unit, Bob Teutsch, and his wife, Ruth Ann, and all their daughters including the extended family were and are caring, loving person(s). Bob continually was interested in your welfare. He always complemented Ruth Ann and gave her credit for bringing up their girls, explaining that she did a wonderful job raising them. One would think having been a policeman for many years that he would be a tough guy, but he was a kind and gentle soul. My husband and I enjoyed the few days when they came to Tennessee to visit us. We also went up to Branson, Missouri to see a few shows together. Unfortunately, having lived in California, New Mexico then lastly Tennessee where we have found our forever home, we did not travel to each other's homes nearly enough. As a couple Bob and Ruth Ann definitely complemented each other and kept their large family together. We long for the day when we will be together again in God's presence. Dale and Joanne Cooper, cousins.
