Robert Matthew Koprivnyak

JUN 23, 1992 - MAR 20, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Robert Matthew Koprivnyak, affectionately known as Bobby, who left us on March 20, 2025, at the age of 32. Born on June 23, 1992, to Wanda Wilson and Chris Koprivnyak, Bobby brought joy and warmth to everyone who knew him.

Bobby is survived by his loving family: his parents Wanda and Chris, his brother Jeffrey (Jodi) Hill, his cherished nieces Ashley and Tiffany, and his great-nephew Matthias. He also leaves behind five beloved aunts who will miss him dearly.

Bobby was a vibrant soul who expressed his creativity and individuality through his tattoos. He was a true people-person, known for his kindness and caring nature. His ability to connect with others and his genuine compassion made him a friend to many.

Bobby's memory will live on in the hearts of those who loved him. His legacy of kindness and his unique spirit will never be forgotten. Rest in peace, Bobby. You will be deeply missed.

Bobby's visitation will be held on Monday, March 31, 2025, from 10 AM – 2 PM at Sunset Memorial Chapel, 6245 Columbia Road, North Olmsted, Ohio 44070. A graveside ceremony will follow at Sunset Memorial Park.

Wanda, Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of Bobby, the hurt will lessen but the memories will always stay in your heart. Bobby is now at peace and in no pain. I still remember the story you told about Bobby wanting a toy and you told him you didn't have the money to buy him a toy and he said bank, bank, it still makes me laugh. The love in your heart for Bobby will be there as long as you are here. Love always, Your sister Gerri
