Karen Marie Bialkowski

SEP 19, 1958 - MAR 30, 2025

Karen Marie Bialkowski, 66, passed away peacefully on March 30, 2025. She was born on September 19, 1958, to the late Donald and Catherine Bialkowski.

Karen is survived by her loving siblings: Kim (Randy) Echelberger, Steve (Anna Marie) Bialkowski, Cheryl (late Duane) Wallace, Donna (Richard) Glass, and Denise (Fred) Cieslik. She was a cherished aunt to her nieces and nephews: Charee, Philp (Haley), Becca (Eli), Andrew, Soloman (Sophia), Stephanie, Stephen, Shawn, Christopher, Taylor, Brooke, Jesse, Kayla, Melyssa (Richard), Amber (Matt), Megan, Anthony, Matthew, and Brittney (Brandon). She also leaves behind her great-nieces and nephews: Emiliano, Rylie, Quintin, Jayden, Beckett and Amelia.

Karen had a deep love for music, especially Journey and the Partridge Family. She was an avid fan of police and medical shows and found joy in spending time with her family. Karen was always there to offer help when needed, and her presence will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

A service to honor Karen's life will be held on April 12 at 2:00 pm at Sunset Chapel, 6245 Columbia Road, North Olmsted, 44070.

On March 30th god called your name and now your in heaven with Mom and Dad. You went through alot over the years but you never gave up. Tear's will flow as your name is carved in stone. But it's ok your no longer in pain. Your my big sister and you will be missed. So now you can sing in heaven like you use to in your room. Sing partridge family i think I love you or Journey open arms and Shaun Cassidy da doo ron ron. So fly like a angle with open arms Karen. I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU AND MISS YOU!!! ❤️❤️❤️ Rest in peace 🙏❤️ Your little sis Donna

I will always remember Karen as a kind, sweet woman who loved her brother Steven. Her smile would brighten the room when she saw him come in! She enjoyed the chocolate shakes and McDonald's he brought when he visited! She had an incredible memory when it came to remembering birthdays and special events. Rest in peace, Karen ❤️
