Dick and I have shared many memories with Marty, such as playing Pinochle every month, going out to eat several times a year, we shared our kids birthdays, graduations, and marriages together and we bowled together for several years. We've had some great times and we will miss her very much. Thanks for all the fun we shared together.

Thank you to all who returned the love my grandma spread. She was a light in my life as I know she was for many others. She will be deeply missed.
