What a wonderful man! I met Wil, last year when I moved my Dad into Villiage of the Falls. He was the one of the first residents I met there. I learned very quickly his love for the Lord! One of the first things he shared with me was the gospel! I loved that! I will keep his cross and scripture card in a safe place!! loved his stories! I loved how fondly he talked about his Sally and his children. I loved his voice as he busted out "I did it my way". I will forever be thankful that I was blessed to meet him.May God grant you peace in your heart knowing he is home with the Lord and his beloved Sally. His legacy will be here forever because of who he was in Christ and the lives he touched.Sending my most sincere sympathies.

Mr. Stacho was the father of Chris Stacho, my best friend' and best man. He was like a second father to me. He always was kind and listened to all the crazy stuff I and Chris talked about. He and Chris's mom always welcomed me into their home. Was he 'perfect'? No, of course not. But who is? Only Jesus Christ.
