David Barry Kadar

JUN 19, 1952 - APR 26, 2025

In Loving Memory of David Barry Kadar June 19, 1952 – April 26, 2025 Age 72

With deep love and immense gratitude, we honor the life of David Barry Kadar, who passed away on the evening of April 26 at the age of 72. He was a devoted man of God, husband, father, brother, son, and friend.

Born and raised in Wheeling, West Virginia, David was a gentle but “free spirit,” as described by his father, Kenneth Kadar. He was student government president of West Liberty State College, earned his MBA from Long Island University, hitchhiked on semi-trucks to see friends and attend sporting events, was a boxing promoter in the late 1970s, jumped into the Amazon River on a mission trip to Brazil, built and ran his own lead generation business for over two and a half decades, and nurtured a family of five in Olmsted Falls, Ohio.

He attended church twice a week, loved reading scripture, and led his life according to God’s values. His heart was full of compassion, generosity, integrity, loyalty, and kindness.

David approached every day with optimism and savored the simple joys of life—listening to classical music, reading, going to the Cleveland Orchestra, Museum of Art, and Botanical Gardens, grabbing coffee with his daughter at Café Aroma—their favorite, seeing his son perform on stage, and spending quality time with friends and family. He will be missed immensely, and his legacy will be carried on in the hearts of everyone he touched.

He is survived by his wife, Donna Kadar; his children, Stormie Kadar, Quentin Worthy, and Ronnie Kadar; his brother, Al Kadar, and sister, Nancy Kadar; and many cherished extended family and friends.

It's been over 40 years since I last saw Dave. I remember him from WLSC , the Wheeling Dog Track, and being a boxing promoter for a couple of my childhood friends. I always admired his optimistic drive and determination. He's one of those who passed thought my life who made this world a better place. My condolences go out to his family and all of his friends
