Patricia Norris lit a candle in honor of Phyllis.

I met Mrs. Vento through Judy (my sister), but only seen her 3 times. A very lovely woman who had a heart of gold. We both loved sewing and talked of several things but I grew up with McCalls magazine that had Betsy McCall paper dolls every month so one year Phyllis at Christmas time bought me an antique box someone had of Betsy paper dolls she found in some antique store. How thoughtful was that? Touched my heart! Now she is with God's Angels and at peace. My heartfelt condolences to the family. Pat Norris

Phyllis Vento was the kindest and sweetest person you could ever meet. She made sure every one around her was happy. That is what she lived for. So wonderful at decorating. She decorated our house when we moved in. Even made elaborate curtains for our windows. Also enjoyed shopping and looking for deals. We took her on vacation and made alot of memories. So many many hours of fun with her. She also loved to play the slot machines for hours and would always win lots of money. Just so very loving. She enjoyed life. Also best mother in-law you could ever ask for. Every one that loves her will never be the same without her in this world. I know she's singing and dancing in that wonder heaven. I'm so proud I got to share a big part of my life with her, until we meet up in heaven again MOM! Sending you lots of love from our broken hearts. You'll always be in mine till eternity and beyond. With love from your favorite daughter in-law. Thanks for being my mom when my mother passed.
