Bob, We all had a good time bowling and golfing together. I remember when you and Jack Urban invited me to golf with you at Mallard Creek one day. From there our friendship grew to bowling together. And then having birthday dinners with our group of friends to celebrate each other. Bob we are going to miss you! May you always knock down the 10 pin and shoot par in n paradise. God bless you Bob!! Love, Dan and Sandy DeRoma

I have over 50 years of memories with Dad, each one more special than the next. But most recently one of my favorite things that Dad would do was to write poems in our birthday and Christmas cards. Each one was different and unique and tailored for whom he was composing his verses for! We looked forward to his cards and would read them out loud and laugh, and he'd be smiling like the Cheshire cat the whole time. So Dad, I hope I do you proud.... Dad, I hope you knew how much you were loved, now keeping vigil over us from above. I'll always remember your warm, witty style, not to mention your "Gotta Love Me" smile. I'll miss your corny jokes we heard a million times, But most of all I'll miss all the cards and your wonderful rhymes! I love you with all my heart Dad, Francine
