Brian Fenderbosch

DEC 27, 1955 - JUL 15, 2025

Brian Fenderbosch, age 69, of North Royalton, Ohio, passed away on July 15, 2025 after a brief and sudden illness. Born on December 27, 1955, in Berea, Ohio, to Robert and Beatrice Fenderbosch, Brian lived a life defined by creativity, kindness, and deep devotion to those he loved.

He was the cherished husband of 40 years to Liane Miller, with whom he shared a beautiful life filled with laughter, partnership, and enduring love. Brian was a proud father to Taylor (Anne Brogden) Fenderbosch, and a doting grandfather to Tess Fenderbosch, who brought him immense joy.

Brian is also survived by his siblings Cheryl Weaver, David Fenderbosch, and Sara (Wayne Jentas) Fenderbosch, as well as many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his brothers Eric Fenderbosch and Thomas Fenderbosch, whose memories he carried with him always.

A master craftsman and gifted artist, Brian's work was a reflection of his soul—thoughtful, imaginative, and full of heart. His projects brought joy to many, and his artistic nature made him endlessly curious about the world around him. Whether building, painting, or simply sharing stories, Brian had a way of making people feel seen and appreciated.

Brian will be remembered for his devotion to his family, his incredible wit and humor and his many long-standing friendships. He was, quite simply, one of the best people you could hope to know.

A memorial service to celebrate Brian's life will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations to his memorial fund at the link below.
