Jerry Lee Curtis July 3, 1945 - July 19, 2025

Jerry Lee Curtis, 80, of Kenova, West Virginia, passed away peacefully on July 19, 2025. Born on July 3, 1945, to the late Claude and Irene Curtis, Jerry lived a life full of love, dedication, and service.

Jerry is survived by his devoted wife, Mattie; his beloved children, Lena, Jerry “JR” (Tracy), Brenda (Desmond), Christina, Bethany, Sara, Daniel (Sarah), Rebecca, and Solomon (Lisa); step-children Jimmy (Larissa) and Marissa (Matthew); a host of cherished grandchildren and great-grandchildren; and his siblings, Diana, Terry, and Pamela. He was preceded in death by his brother, Jon.

Jerry proudly served in the US Army until his honorable discharge. He then dedicated many years to Ford Motor Company before retiring. His true calling was as a Pastor and Evangelist for The Prayer Closet Ministry, where he touched countless lives with his faith and compassion.

Jerry had a deep love for the outdoors, finding joy in fishing and yard work. His favorite place to unwind and create memories was Destin, Florida.

A graveside service to honor Jerry's life will be held on July 24 at 12:30 pm, meeting at Sunset Chapel, 6245 Columbia Rd, North Olmsted, 44070.

MY FATHER. This memory of him was special. He still had love for all of us 9 kids. He did not judge us, at this time he knew no one walked on water.

I tried this the other day for some reason it didn't come out so you will try again the first time I walked into prayer closet I knew that Maddie and Gerry were the real deal two of my favorite people. I'm glad that he is not suffering and I know where he is and Maddie knows where he is, but he will be greatly missed. I wish prayer closet never had to close. Send hugs Marty's way love sister Lori.

Uncle Jerry was such a loving man to our family. He had such a sense of humor. When you visited him and Aunt Pauline's home, you always left with smiles and laughter. Whenever, we all got together as a family, he always looked for my banana pudding and Daphine's potato salad. He would greatly be missed. Sending love and prayers for auntie and rest of the family as this loss is very heart breaking.Love,Tonja James

Daddy, You gave me the color of my eyes. You gave me my name. You taught me about God. You hugged me. I love you so much. I wish you could see this message because I really need you to know how much you meant to me. We had some silly times when we made one another laugh. We grew apart and I came back to show you my love for you. You loved me when no one else did and that can never be replaced. Your Loving Daughter, Sara

Daddy, You gave me your eyes, you gave me my name, and you loved me. I always wanted to be close to you, closer than you'll ever know. I remember how silly you use to be and you would make me laugh as a young adult. I remember you carrying me to bed at night when I was a little girl and had fallen asleep in the living room on the couch. You were there when I gave birth to my son. I love you so much it hurts. I missed you before you left. I just wanted to be by you all the time and I'm sorry I didn't fit in the circle with my squares. I tried. I ask God to give me the strength to handle that you are not here, yet I know you are no longer in pain. I wish you could read this. I Love You Eternally, Your Daughter Sara
