Beverly Schilero lit a candle in honor of David.

Dave and I were friends. Through the years I observed his dedication to our community. He was a pleasant, cordial, man with an easy going personality. Both Dave and Beverly spent years involved in local community affairs. He will be missed by many. I want to express my deepest condolences to his family, especially to his wife, Beverly, and his daughter, Jackie. May the Lord hold Dave's hand and guide him throughout eternity, and comfort his loving family.
