Aaron Haycook sent a virtual gift in honor of Bryan.

Bryan was a wonderful man.I knew Bryan from camping. I got to enjoy what was likely the best version of him, as he was happy to be out at the camper. Bryan was a top-notch conversationalist and oddly knew so much about so much. He only shared the best about anyone and everyone. I feel Bryan had a way of bringing out the best in anyone and always made you feel important and relevant.Bryan loved his family and always lit up when he saw them or was entertaining. It never appeared to be an inconvenience, but rather a true love.Our deepest condolences go out to Linda, Justin, Matt, and Bella. I know his smiling face and pleasant disposition will forever be missed.Aaron, Heather, Hallie, Landon, and Brooke Haycook

I used to work at one of the depots inspecting containers. My father is also an operator at this yard and has known Bryan for a few decades. Bryan was one of our favorite drivers. Always sarcastic and ragging on me. I'm a driver myself now and still got to see him from time to time. Always made sure to wave or say hello. Will definitely miss seeing him around. Very sorry for you loss ❤️ -Rae Sanka
