Debra Kay Barnett

DEC 25, 1961 - JAN 15, 2026

Debra Kay Barnett, 64, passed away on January 15, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family. Born on December 25, 1961, in Cleveland, Ohio, Debra was a Christmas gift to all who would come to know her. She was raised by her devoted mother, Marjorie Kame, who helped shape the warm, generous spirit that defined her life.

Debra shared a deep and enduring love with her late husband, Steven Barnett. Together, they built a family rooted in faith, laughter, and unwavering support. She is survived by her daughters, Alicia (Nicholas) Rose and Melanie (Michael) Burkey. Debra was a proud and adoring grandmother to Madison Kaltenbach, Michael Burkey, and Kaylee Edwards, each of whom brought her immeasurable joy.

A woman of many gifts, Debra was known for her beautiful singing voice and her talent with the guitar—music that often filled her home and lifted the spirits of those around her. She had a remarkable ability to put others first, always moving, always helping, rarely taking a moment for herself. Whether she was lending a hand, offering a listening ear, or preparing her famously delicious mashed potatoes, Debra gave of herself freely and wholeheartedly.

Her faith in God was a guiding light throughout her life, and her kindness, beauty—both inside and out—and boundless energy left an unforgettable mark on everyone she met. Debra's legacy is one of love, service, and grace.

She will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and all who were blessed to know her. Her memory will continue to shine brightly in the lives she touched.
