Dale M. Kumerow

SEP 21, 1953 - MAR 15, 2026

Dale Kumerow, 72, of Brook Park, Ohio, passed away peacefully Sunday morning, March 15, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of faith, integrity, and service to others.

Born on September 21, 1953, in Parma, Ohio, Dale was a proud graduate of Parma High School, Class of 1972, where he was known for his strength and discipline as a member of the wrestling team.

Dale spent many years working as a truck driver, a profession that reflected his strong work ethic and dedication. A large part of his career was spent at Fay Industries in Strongsville, Ohio. He was known by those who loved him for his commitment to physical fitness, his passion for Triumph motorcycles, and for building an impressive backyard treehouse that became a point of pride and joy.

Above all else, Dale was a man of deep and unwavering faith in Jesus Christ. He attended Grace Christian Missionary & Alliance Church in Middleburg Heights, Ohio, for many years, where he faithfully served others. Dale spent many years teaching children's Sunday school, sharing his love for the Bible with the next generation. He was also known as the friendly Sunday morning shuttle bus driver, always greeting others with warmth and kindness.

Dale knew the Bible well, having memorized entire chapters, and his life reflected his deep love for God's Word. His life was defined by service to others and devotion to Jesus. Dale was always ready to help anyone in need and was known for quietly showing up with a pizza or another small token of care—simple ways he shared the love of Christ with those around him.

If Dale could leave one message to those he loved, it would be his deepest desire that every member of his family and every friend come to know Jesus Christ as their Savior.

What a wonderful, humble man that the Lord used greatly. Both Dale and D were a very important part of my coming to faith in the Lord Jesus Christ in 1983 and I am forever grateful. I pray the peace of the Lord Jesus over his family and loved ones. Meg Collins
