

Richard J. Klug

July 24, 1930 - October 17, 2020

Richard J. Klug, 90, of Strongsville went to be with Christ on October 17th, 2020, where he joined his dearly beloved wife Norma and granddaughter Jacqueline, who both preceded him in death. Richard was the dear father of Chris (Patty) Klug, Lorie (Rich) Calanni, and Carey (Charleen) Klug; and was devoted grandfather of Nathan Klug. Richard worked over 30 years as a carpenter associated with the Cleveland Carpenters Union. He had a great passion for the outdoors and God's creation, for being with close family friends, and for participating in communion at St. Mary's parish in Berea. He daily walked the trails in the Metroparks of Rocky River reservation, where the birds and squirrels would follow him along the trail knowing he always had a pocket full of seeds and peanuts. Richard and Norma also loved to garden. A funeral Mass will be held Monday, October 26th at 10am, at St. Mary's Catholic church on 250 Kraft St. in Berea. A graveside ceremony for family and friends will immediately follow at Sunset Memorial Park in North Olmsted. Due to Covid-19, there will be no indoor reception following the service, and mask wearing and social distancing are required. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to the poor served by Catholic Charities of Cleveland (ccdacle.org).

Comments

“ We built our homes on Ellen Drive together and were neighbors for a long time. Dick and Norma were the BEST neighbors and friends anyone could ever want. Dick came over and helped me work on my house, and he always gave me advice and pointers on how to do things better (he was a master carpenter). He and Norma kept their home like a showplace and I was always kidding him that that it was tough being his neighbor because he set the bar for excellence SO high. When they moved to Strongsville, it was a blow to not have him there each day, but we used to see each other all the time in the MetroParks, Dick walking and me biking. He was a truly great human being.
